

Important Message about the availability of Intel® RAID Web Console 3 (RWC3) for Windows*

Intel RAID Web Console 3 will no longer be available after 19 January 2024 and will not be supported with any additional functional, security, or other updates. All versions are provided as is. Intel recommends that users of Intel RAID Web Console 3 uninstall and discontinue use as soon as possible. Intel has confirmed with Broadcom that the latest versions (8.7 and later) of Broadcom LSI Storage Authority will support Intel branded RAID and Storage adapters.
